

Where is the dog?

dog

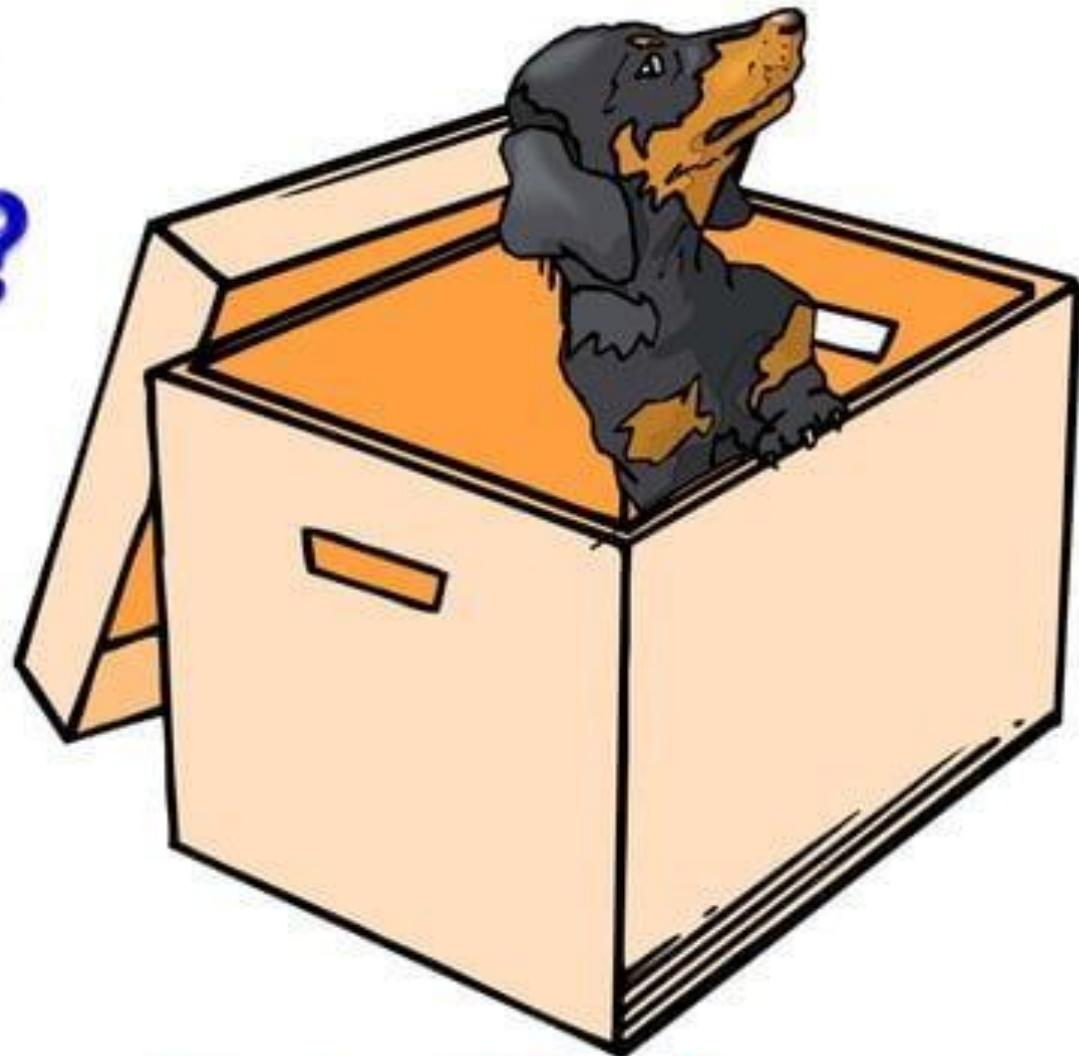

box

table

Where is the dog?

The dog is in the box.

Where is the dog?

The dog is on the table.

Where is the dog?

The dog is under the table.

Where is the dog?

The dog is next to the table.

Where is the dog?

The dog is in front of the table.

Where is the dog?

The dog is behind the table.

HOW TO USE MUCH VS MANY

Introduction

In this lesson we will review the use of much and many. Along with this we will also review about count and noncount nouns.

Definition:

- Much and many mean:
 - A large quantity of something.

Examples:

There are many apples at my house.

We don't have much coffee.

When to use many?

- We use many for countable nouns. (Ex. apples, shirts, restaurants, houses, dogs, bones, etc.)

Example:

- There are many restaurants around my house.
- There are 10 restaurants around my house.

Interrogative:

- How many restaurants are there?
- There are 10 restaurants.

When to use much?

- We use much for noncountable nouns. (Ex. coffee, bread, rice, water, juice, jam, etc.)

Example:

- I have not gotten much money.
- Much time was spent studying for the exam

Interrogative:

- How much money do you have?
- I have a few money.
- How much water is there?
- There is a lot of water.

ACTIVITY

Instructions:

Fill in the blanks using much/many depending on the noun.

1. Have you got _____ books?
2. I don't have _____ time to do sport.
3. How _____ people came to the meeting?
4. Are there _____ students in the class?
5. I didn't see _____ of the film because I fell asleep.
6. How _____ coffee did you buy?
7. How _____ cups of coffee did you buy?
8. Not _____ students passed the exam.
9. They didn't give me _____ information.